«I wanted to participate in a yoga teacher training which was held in English at a stunning place in Bali. I was looking for an easy and quick online test to evaluate my English level, and that is exactly what I found in Linguaskill.»

Amanda, 32, yoga teacher

«For a volunteers position for a horse riding farm in the beautiful landscape of Ireland, I needed a minimum English level of B1. Therefore, I took the Linguaskill English test which was very convenient and just the type of language assessment I was looking for.»

Robert, 26, volunteer

«I have only very rarely been using my English. Therefore, I attended a language course. To see if my skills had improved at the end of the course, I took the online Linguaskill test. It is a computer-adaptive English test which was really practical and affordable as well.»

Edith, 55, language course participant
